

COMMERCIAL CONTINUOUS FLOW

KINGSFORD HOMESTEAD — BAROSSA

Kingsford Homestead is situated on the western edge of the Barossa Valley, near Gawler and accommodates up to 14 guests. Surrounded by 225 acres of stunning South Australian countryside the property was purchased by the Ahrens family in 2009 and carefully converted into a five-star retreat .

The television show McLeod's Daughters was filmed on location, the property was closed off from the public for seven years of production. The property was run like a working farm for the purposes of filming, complete with 100 cattle, 250 sheep, 15 horses, working dogs and a team of stockmen.

Hot Water Requirements

6 Executives guest suites with an estimated hot water load of 1430L over a 1hr peak demand period including meeting the hot water demands of a commercial kitchen and laundry.

Solution

1 x Rheem Commpak model CPE03K

Providing 2,376L of hot water per hour with a peak flow rate capacity of 41L min.

